1. Map the story on a sheet of paper. At the top of the page write the name of the graphic organizer that you chose. It can be a table, a house, a sandwich, or any other item that has three parts. Make sure that you have enough room to write complete sentences. Explain what happened at the beginning of your weekly reading, the middle of your weekly reading, and at the end of your weekly reading. If you have not finished the book, please write a prediction of what will happen next.
